PROPERTIES AT 7 STARS MAY

Adams County's commissioners -both the incoming board and the outgoing board-seemed inclined Thursday afternoon to give owners of properties in Seven Stars some tax assessment relief as a result of "smoke" problems in that area.

The new commissioners. Atlee F. Rebert, Harrison G. Fair and G. Edwin Motter, met all day Thursday with the outgoing commissioners, E. Donald Scott, Clarence J. Waybright and Charles B. Bender, to go over the details of the job they will assume January 6.

ther Deaner and John L. Caufman, all property owners in Seven Stars, visited the commissioners and asked tax relief, claiming that the value of their properties has declined as a result of the smog caused at times by the emissions from the aluminum plant at Seven Stars.

NIXON'S STOCK

EDITOR'S NOTE- An October poll of the Republican county leaders showed Barry Goldwater was their overwhelming choice for next year's presidential nomination. Now a second poll by The Associated Press shows these Republicans have sharply revised their thinking since President Kennedy's death.

BY RELMAN MORIN AP Special Correspondent

Richard M. Nixon's 1964 presidential stock has skyrocketed since President Kennedy's death while Sen. Barry Goldwater's has fallen sharply, a second poll of Republican county chairmen indicates today.

But Goldwater again led all potential nominees.

The poll, taken by Associated Press correspondents in all 50 0 states, brought replies from 1,361 GOP leaders, a majority of whom also participated in a poll in October.

LESS SPECTACULAR

Although still in front, Goldwater's vote was only about half the spectacular total he rolled up in the AP's October poll. Then, 85.1 per cent of those na senator as the party's "strongest candidate" against Kennedy. His figure in the second poll was 44.2 per cent.

Nixon, vice president under President Eisenhower, showed the greatest gains and ran second to Goldwater.

Henry Cabot Lodge, ambaspoll-was third, finishing ahead of New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, only announced candidate for the nomination. ASKED TWO QUESTIONS

Six New Years - count them! Six sets of good resolutions-remember them? And now another year coming up . . . all too quickly . . . how they seem to rush by!

As always, the beginning of another year is a good time to consider how much happier and better life is when God is in it. And just as important is the resolution to share this knowledge with others.

True, any Sunday can be a new beginning. But strengthened by past experience, make this year a truly memorable one. Start taking your family to church regularly. Claim your birthright of peace and forgiveness in sincere worship.

Retail trade set a record for December. Industrial production continued to rise. So did personal incomes. Surveys of consumer intentions showed confidence would be translated into more buying in the new year. Business executives issued more than usually optimistic predictions, and many an nounced increased spending

FRE

··· A Very Valuable

YOURS WILL ARRIVE ON JANUARY 2

PROBABLY the world's most priceless gift. Yet it won't cost you a cent. Just one requirement. You have to be present (in the flesh) on January 2.

Since there is a limited supply of these very valuable gifts, the following people are not eligible. (They won't be around on January 2, anyway.)

The Reckless Ones, who don't pay any attention to traffic laws. The Foolish Ones, who don't allow themselves enough time to complete their trip safely. The Careless Ones, who ignore road, weather and traffic conditions. The Childish Ones, who can't keep their minds on their driving. And the Crazy Ones, who mix drinking and driving.

Stay away from them. Any one of them can keep you from making that all-important appearance on January 2. Any one of them can kill your chances of receiving that very valuable gift-your life.

The holidays bring out the best in people—and holiday driving brings out the worst. So, to keep your date with life on January 2, be on the alert for the careless, the reckless, the foolish, the crazy and the childieh. Don't let them cross you off the gift list.
